Managed Funds Association Announces 2015-2016 Board of Directors

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Managed Funds Association (MFA) today announced its 2015-2016 Board of Directors and newly elected officers. The new Board and officers will provide governance oversight to MFA and help guide the Association's advocacy, education and communication efforts on global issues impacting the alternative investment industry.

MFA's Board unanimously elected David C. Haley, President, Managing Director, HBK Capital Management, as the Board Chair; Michael S. Harris, President, Campbell & Company, Inc., as Vice Chair; Mikael A. Johnson, Senior Lead Partner, Alternative Investments, KPMG LLP, as Treasurer; and Bruce S. Darringer, Member and Chief operating Officer, King Street Capital Management GP, L.L.C., as Secretary.

"Increasingly, institutional investors rely on the alternative investment industry to help them manage risk, diversify their portfolio and provide risk-adjusted returns over time. MFA Members are proud to partner with these investors, which represent more than two-thirds of our industry's $3 trillion in capital under management," Haley said. "The evolution of our investor pool and new reforms, which bring alternative investments into the financially-regulated mainstream, make this an especially important time for our industry. I am honored to have been chosen by my colleagues to serve as Chair and look forward to working with them and the MFA team in the years ahead."

MFA President and CEO Richard H. Baker said, "With the thoughtful guidance of our Board - past and present, alike - MFA has become a constructive advocate for fair, efficient and liquid capital markets and the investors they serve. We are excited about the future and remain especially grateful for the expertise of our Board and the active involvement of our diverse Membership."

Newly elected Board Members include:
